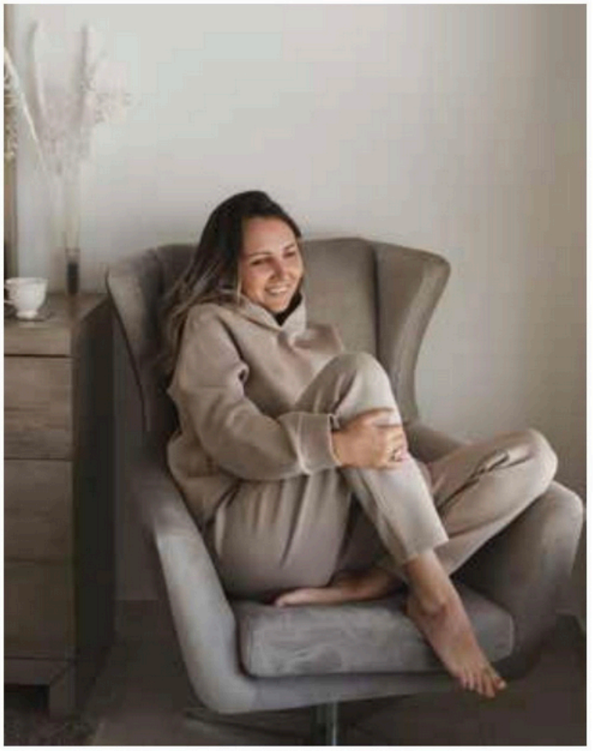
A STYLIST'S 2025 HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE:

FASHIONABLE FINDS FOR EVERYONE ON YOUR LIST

Hey, it's Tanya your stylist from ModeT!

I'm back just in time for the holiday season, and if you're anything like me, every year starts with great intentions. I tell myself I'll start early... and then somehow it's mid-month, the playlists are looping, and the to-do list feels longer than the checkout lines.

Available at BK HOME, 19 E Elm Street, Greenwich or online at bkhomegreenwich.com



So this year, I'm keeping things simple. Here's a guide to gifts that feel personal, fashion-forward, and truly fun to give. Whether you're shopping for your partner, your kids, or the tween who's developing their own sense of style, these are the things worth wrapping up.

For Her: Soft Structure, Texture, and Everyday Luxury

2025 is all about quiet confidence, luxe fabrics, tonal colors, and pieces that look effortless but feel indulgent.

1. The Elevated Knit: Sweaters this year are tactile and sculptural, ribbed, brushed, or slightly cropped. For a splurge, try Khaite or The Row. For chic, budget-friendly options, Reformation and COS deliver beautifully.

2. Jewelry That Feels Like Her: Layered gold, sculptural silver, or mixed-metal cuffs, jewelry that feels personal is timeless. Go high-end with Jennifer Fisher or Zoë Chicco, or gift something lovely (and wallet-friendly) from JTG Jewelry or Gorjana. A statement ring in bronze featuring Peridot, Sky Blue Topaz, Amethyst, Champagne Quartz, and London Blue Topaz—five vibrant gems that evoke color, movement, and bold energy from local favorite BK Home.
